16th Latest Advances in Psychiatry Symposium
Complexities and conundrums in mental health

Tuesday 21st March 2017 | Royal College of Physicians, Regent’s Park, London
A collaboration between Progress and the International Society for Affective Disorders
Dear Delegate,

We warmly invite you to the 16th Latest Advances in Psychiatry symposium on behalf of the International Society for Affective Disorders (ISAD) and the journal Progress in Neurology and Psychiatry (Wiley).

The symposium will focus on Complexities and conundrums in mental health. We are delighted to have some high profile speakers covering a range of hot topics, including Professor Declan Murphy, who will be giving the Keynote Lecture entitled ‘From ‘bench to bedside’ in psychiatry – can it really succeed?’

The symposium is intended to be part of your CPD portfolio, so we can provide you with independent, up-to-date, practical information that will help you achieve your professional objectives and enhance your everyday clinical practice.

We hope the opportunity to network with leading clinicians and colleagues will make for a productive and enjoyable day.

We look forward to welcoming you to what remains a prestigious educational event in the UK psychiatry calendar.

Professor Allan Young
President of the International Society for Affective Disorders
